	PLEASE NOTE: It is not possible for Trinity to issue a replacement certificate with revised ID details.
How long is a certificate valid for?	All Trinity certificates are valid for life as evidence of the candidate's achievement and performance in a Trinity exam. However, where certificates are used for UK visa or immigration purposes, Trinity has recommended to the UK Home Office that, for security reasons, only certificates less than two years old should be accepted.
Disclaimer	If you are issued with a certificate, it does not mean that you will be successful in your application for a visa or immigration or citizenship. The exam result and certificate indicate your aptitude for the language element of a visa or immigration or citizenship application process but do not guarantee that you will be successful in your application.
