Sample

Time allowed: 60 minutes

Please answer all questions. Write your answers in pen, not pencil, on the separate answer sheet.
You may not use dictionaries. You may not use correction fluid.

Task 1

Questions 1-6 test your ability to read a text quickly for the general idea, and to scan it for key words and phrases. You are advised to read the questions before you read the text.

Questions 1-4

The text on page 3 has six paragraphs. Each paragraph has a purpose. Choose the letter of the paragraph which best matches the purposes below. Write the letter on your answer sheet. You do not need to use all of the paragraphs.

Example to introduce a review of the film 'On the Streets' ..... A

1. to describe Oliver Jones' performance .....
2. to describe a less successful aspect of the film .....
3. to summarise the author's reaction to the film .....
4. to describe an emotional moment in the film .....

Questions 5-6

Choose the letter of the best answer and write it on your answer sheet.

5. How does the writer feel about the film overall?
A positive
B negative
C neutral
6. What did the writer dislike?
A the part with the journalist because everyone was familiar with it
B the length of the film and the part about Amos Johnson's girlfriend
C the fact that it made the writer cry and was overly sentimental

On the Streets

Paragraph A

On the Streets is one of my favourite books, so when I went to see the film version of this enchanting story I was pretty sure I was going to be disappointed.

Paragraph B

I couldn't have been more wrong. Amos Johnson's rags to riches autobiography has transferred magnificently to the screen and all credit is due to director Annabel Austin for a superb piece of work. My only quarrel with her would be over the running time: three hours is unnecessarily long for any film, no matter how brilliant.

Paragraph C

Much of the film's success is down to some impressive acting from Oliver Jones in the lead role. He was totally convincing, both as the young Amos Johnson sleeping on the streets of Manchester because he could not afford to rent a room, and as the older Johnson living in luxury after he became a successful photographer.

Paragraph D

Sue Bentley played the rich old woman who befriends Johnson after a chance meeting in the park. The scene where she gives Johnson her camera just hours before she goes into hospital was beautifully done – I'm sure I was not the only person in the audience to shed a quiet tear.

Paragraph E

Just about everyone knows the story of how Johnson began to take photographs of his life as a homeless man in Manchester and used a computer at his local library to post them on the internet. However, even though I knew a journalist would eventually track him down and make him famous, I still found that part of the film worked well.

Paragraph F

I only wish the film had stayed faithful to the book throughout. Maria Stuart certainly brought some youth and beauty to the screen but her role was completely unnecessary. In real life, Amos Johnson managed perfectly well without a girlfriend. I suppose Hollywood producers just can't imagine making a movie that doesn't feature at least one glamorous young actress.

Task 2*Questions 7-10

Five sentences are missing from the text on page 5. Look at the following six sentences and decide which one best fits each gap. Write the letter of your answer on your answer sheet. There is an example (A). There is one sentence you do not need.

- A ~~The Arctic Monkeys' lead singer, Alex Turner, was born in Sheffield in 1986.~~
 B The band held their first public performance in 2003, in a Sheffield pub called The Grapes.
 C The band also performed at the opening ceremony of the London 2012 Olympic Games.
 D Arctic Monkeys' first album, Whatever People Say I Am, That's What I'm Not, was released in 2006.
 E However, unlike bands from earlier times, the Arctic Monkeys really became famous because of the internet.
 F Turner studied for A levels at a sixth form college in Barnsley, a town near Sheffield.

Questions 11-13

Choose the letter of the best answer and write it on your answer sheet.

11. According to paragraph two
 A Alex's parents taught him to play the piano
 B before 2001, Alex had never owned a guitar
 C Alex asked for a guitar as a Christmas present
12. According to paragraph three
 A Alex's parents were angry because he did not go to university
 B Alex started the Arctic Monkeys before he went to university
 C Alex's parents wanted him to pursue his music career
13. According to paragraph six
 A the Arctic Monkeys released a lot of their music over the internet
 B nowadays most people love to share music over the internet
 C thanks to their fans, the band gained an audience on the internet

Questions 14-16

Choose the letter of the answer which best matches the meaning of each word as it is used in the text. Write the letter on your answer sheet.

14. In paragraph one, the word roots means
 A relatives
 B beginnings
 C supporters
15. If something is a novelty (paragraph six), it is
 A new
 B illegal
 C untrue
16. In paragraph eight, adamant means
 A worried
 B hopeful
 C certain

The superstars who love their home town

Paragraph one

People who suddenly become rich or famous are often accused of forgetting the places where they grew up. Nobody could say that about the four young men who make up the Arctic Monkeys, one of the most successful bands in British history. They have all vowed never to move away from their roots in the northern city of Sheffield.

Paragraph two

                    A (Example)                    . Alex's parents, who are both teachers, arranged for him to have piano lessons while he was growing up but their most important decision probably came when they gave him his first guitar as a Christmas present in 2001.

Paragraph three

                    7.                    . His parents wanted him to go to university but by that time he had started the Arctic Monkeys and he persuaded them to let him spend a year seeing whether he could be successful at making music.

Paragraph four

The Arctic Monkeys' main guitarist is Jamie Cook, who used to live next door to the Turner family. The other two original band members were Matt Helders and Andy Nicholson, who also grew up in Sheffield.

Paragraph five

                    8.                    . They then made frequent appearances at a nearby club called the Boardwalk, where Alex had worked as a barman. As they became more and more popular they started performing across the north of England and began to get publicity in local and national media.

Paragraph six

                    9.                    . Some of their fans created a website for them, and others started sharing their music online. Today most people in the UK are familiar with the idea of accessing music through the internet but in the early years of the 21st century, it was still quite a novelty.

Paragraph seven

                    10.                    . It sold more than 360,000 copies in its first week and was the fastest selling debut album in British history. The band has since produced six more albums, all of them hugely successful.

Paragraph eight

Although they now perform all over the world, the band members are adamant that they will never move away from Sheffield. They say that in all their travels they have never seen a place they like better, and it continues to inspire many of their songs.
