

TITLE	POLICY ON MODERN SLAVERY
Objective	Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. Trinity College London ('Trinity') is committed to ensuring that acts of modern day slavery and human trafficking have no place in its business and supply chain.
What is modern slavery?	Modern slavery can take various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced or compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.
Scope	This policy applies to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• All Trinity staff (including employees at all levels and contractors)</li> <li>• Our service providers, third party representatives and partners working with Trinity</li> <li>• Registered Exam Centres</li> <li>• Our other suppliers</li> </ul>
What we will do	We will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Be clear about our recruitment procedure and only use agreed, reputable recruitment agencies</li> <li>• Check our supply chains</li> <li>• Lead by example by making appropriate checks on employees and suppliers to ensure we know who is working for us</li> <li>• Ensure we have in place an open and transparent grievance process for all staff</li> <li>• Seek to raise awareness on the issue of modern slavery in supply chains by providing training to staff</li> <li>• Make a clear statement that we take our responsibilities to our employees, subcontractors and business partners seriously</li> </ul>
Identifying slavery	There is no typical victim and some victims do not understand that they have been exploited and are entitled to help and support. However, the following key signs could indicate that someone may be a victim of slavery or trafficking: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The person is not in possession of their own passport, identification or travel documents</li> <li>• The person is acting as though they are being instructed or coached by someone else</li> <li>• They allow others to speak for them when spoken to directly</li> <li>• They are dropped off and collected from work</li> <li>• The person is withdrawn or they appear frightened</li> <li>• The person does not seem to be able to contact friends or family freely</li> <li>• The person has limited social interaction or contact with people outside their immediate environment</li> </ul>

	This list is not exhaustive. A person may display a number of the trafficking indicators set out above but they are not necessarily a victim of slavery or trafficking. However, if you have a suspicion, report it.
Compliance with this policy	The prevention, detection and reporting of modern slavery in any part of our business or supply chains is the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control. You are required to avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of this policy. You must notify your manager as soon as possible if you believe or suspect that a conflict with this policy has occurred, or may occur in the future.
Reporting slavery	You are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of modern slavery in any parts of our business or supply chains of any supplier tier at the earliest possible stage. If you think someone is in immediate danger, you should contact the police. If you have a suspicion, you may use the reporting procedures under the Policy and Procedure for Reporting Malpractice, the Whistleblowing Policy if you are a member of Trinity staff, or you can contact us directly on: reporting@trinitycollege.com
Confidentiality	Trinity will always endeavour to keep your identity confidential where asked to do so, although by law and regulation we may need to disclose your identity to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The police, fraud prevention agencies or other law enforcement agencies (to investigate or prevent crime, including fraud);</li> <li>• The courts (in connection with court proceedings);</li> <li>• Another person to whom we are required by law to disclose your identity;</li> <li>• The national regulator responsible for the standards of the qualification(s) concerned.</li> </ul> You should also be aware that you may be identifiable by others due to the nature or circumstances of the disclosure.
Breaches of this policy	Any employee who breaches this policy may face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for misconduct or gross misconduct. We may terminate our relationship with other individuals and organisations working on our behalf if they breach this policy.
Review	This policy is subject to review at the discretion of Trinity's Executive and/or as required by changes to legislation.
Effective date	30 January 2017
